Many Valuable Helps to Married Folk Who Would B: Happy.

All persons who have so far contributed to the discussion of the great question, "What a the Best Way to Manage a Wife?" now going on in this column of THE EVENING Workin agree upon one thing, which is that a woman must be loved before she will submit to management; but there is a great diversity of opinion concerning the other qualties necessary to success in this line. If there wasn't this diversity there could not possibly be any great interest in the discussion. Fathomers of the secret of domestic bliss must search it from every standpoint. The person who finds most phases to it and furnishes the best recipe for managing the wife will be awarded the golden prize. Conditions.
